

THE BATS OF BRACKEN CAVE

PHOTOGRAPHS BY DAVID CARRALES

Every night, from March to October, twenty million Mexican free-tailed bats (Tadarida brasiliensis) emerge from Bracken Cave in central Texas to devour tons of insects. Learn how you can help save these magnificent creatures by visiting Bat Conservation International at www.batcon.org!